

About IJCC

As per the MHA Resolution dated 25/09/1976 establishing NICFS, it is to publish Journals / Newsletters, etc. Since 1981, the Institute has been publishing a Journal called 'The Indian Journal of Criminology and Criminalistics' (IJCC) which is a unique Journal in India.

Aims and Scope

IJCC publishes scholarly writings spread across the expanding domain of Criminal Justice Education in India. The objective of the IJCC is to publish innovative and original papers. The Journal aspires to be accessible, competent and relevant for the wider community of Criminal Justice Education. The Journal provides an opportunity for authors to publish their writings in the twin interdisciplinary subjects of Criminology and Forensic Science. IJCC is useful and essential reading for all who are directly or indirectly related to the Criminal Justice Administration as well as for students and teachers.
